ADDITIONAL WORDS

On the street, every window,
Save but one, was gleaming bright.
And to this window walked the boy-child
Peeking in saw ... candlelight.

Through other windows he had looked at turkeys
Ducks and geese, cherry pies.
But through this window saw a grey-haired lady
Table bare and ... teats in her eyes.

Into his coat reached the boy-child
Knowing well there was little there.
He took from his pocket his own Christmas dinner
A bit of cheese, some bread ... to share.

His outstretched hands held the food and they trembled
As the door, it opened wide
Said he, "Would you share with me Christmas dinner?"
Gently said she, "Come inside."

The grey-haired lady brought forth to the table
Glasses two and her last drop of wine
Said she, "Here's a toast to everyone's Christmas,
And especially ... yours and mine."

And it came to pass on that Christmas evening
While all the doors were shuttered tight
That in that town, the happiest Christmas
Was shared by ... candlelight.
